Where the River meets the Sea

By supporting events at the Gulf of Georgia Cannery, you contribute to the experience of collective joy, connection, and provide a vital investment into our community. You celebrate and elevate the stories of West Coast fishing and the diverse peoples represented in that legacy.

IMPACT

- Media reach extending from Vancouver Island to the interior to the northern coastal US
- Connection with a National Historic Site and support of a Non-For-Profit Charitable organization (#107457764RR0001), the Gulf of Georgia Cannery Society.
- Enable 160 volunteers in 1200+ hours of experience annually
- Connect with more than 50 organizations working to benefit the greater Lower Mainland community
